

The Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation, Inc.
August 12, 2009 (updated from July 28, 2008 and August 19, 2005)

Over the years the Foundation has invested a large sum of money to protect our name, image and certain marks that we use to conduct business. Under the trade mark laws of the U.S.A. we do own these rights, but with the condition that the public be informed of our valuable interest.

THE ®

To avoid loss or possible erosion of the valuable rights acquired through the registration of the various Mark's, the Foundation should indicate on printed materials in conjunction with the services that the design mark has been registered. The words “Registered in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office,” “Reg. U.S. Pat & Tm. Off.” Or the letter “R” in a circle beside the Mark are accepted by the US PTO as ways to indicate that a mark has been registered.
